My dear Sir

I have received this morning from the Department of State my passport but it is simply for myself whereas I am accompanied by my wife As there is very little time for delay I take the liberty to send you the passport and to request you to be kind enough to get them to issue one in its stead for Augustus Wiggins accompanied by his wife Ann Elizabeth aged 25 years If you could get this and send it me by return of mail I should be much indebted to you -

I sent Mr Davis an affidavit but he may not have delivered it and may have forgotten to state that I should be accompanied by my wife - I do not send to him about it as I do not know whether he is there not having heard from him and I do not like to send to the Department of State as there may be so many delays about attending to it.

I am therefore compelled to again trouble and shall feel much indebted to you if you would be kind enough to attend to it for me -

With kindest regards to Mr. Cummins, Remain my dear Sir

I am ever good enough to say that you would make me the bearer of despatches to England. I intend to embark for Southampton on the U.S. Mail Steamer "Fulton" on the 31st of May. It is only just now that I have been able to fix the day, as which I could care. I am now also so kind as to promise me a special letter to the Despatches Agent in London - and also some letters for the Continent - which would be useful. We intend to pass a short time in England and then cross over to Switzerland for a month or so & return to Paris - then post South in the Fall. My dear Mr Marcy

I am just about setting out to spend the summer with my family, in England and on the Continent, and therefore require a passport. Will you do me the favor to direct Mr Hunter, or whoever has charge of the matter to send me this paper at his earliest convenience - not later however, than by the mail of Wednesday or Thursday morning, as I leave here on Saturday the 10th to reach New York that evening. We sail in the Persia on the 14th. My party will consist of Mrs Kennedy, Miss Gray, her sister, and a young lady of seventeen, Miss Pennington of this City. I understand it is not customary to describe the ladies of a family traveling under the charge of the head.

As well as I can recollect on my own description, I may be set down in the following formula:

Age about sixty.

Height, five feet nine inches

Eyes, hazel

Hair - what there is of it - dark but white at the temples, and rather scarce on the top - a bald crown.

Nose, below the medium of a good

Mouth large his Hunter can fill up <sup>upon memory</sup> any other requisition as to features, as I am quite unable to make a particular definition of the general character of my exterior.

If he can add any thing to prove my peaceable disposition by describing me as an innocent man educated in the virtuous school of public life in Washington, it may save me from the notice of Europe who are apt to be on the look out for a filibuster when they hear of an American on the road.

Can I can serve you, by delineating any message for you in London, I shall ~~Philadelphia May 4th 1816~~

Dear Sir

I take the liberty of addressing your Excellency and to put your opinion and decision in a matter of great interest to all concerned

A person who has been ~~well~~ known and declared his determination to become a Citizen of the United States of North America wishing to purchase real estate in the City took out his papers as a Citizen of the State of Tennessee / the law therefore being to do so in order to accomplish his purpose - and known to know a Citizen of the United States - requiring a years residence / of 5 years / in this Country -

Therefore calls this person to the Con-sulate of Europe - where he can not get without a Passport - from his native Country - he can of course get no Passport - being qualified to and sworn allegiance to this Country and by so doing fulfilled the claims to the protection of his fatherland - The question now is: how can this or such a person get the absolutely necessary protection? Having adopted the Country - having become a Citizen of one of the States of this great Union - having in all instances acted in conformity with the Laws of this Republic - and being as he is a citizen of this Great Republic - I should think he has a right to ask for the necessary protection from the Government of his adopted Country -

For if refused - he would stand there without protection - though a Citizen of an Independent State!
He would be forced to pay up a payage on which his interests and welfare depends - & would indeed be in a pitiable situation - aduan

we can then see

I therefore apply to your Excellency for an answer to these questions and

Sir

I am in receipt of passport N<sup>o</sup> 12502 for which I am indebted to your attention; but I regret exceedingly that I am obliged to trouble you again; since by a strange mistake (perhaps attributable to the illegibility of my signature) it has been filled up for Mr David A Mordecai, instead of David H Mordecai.

The strictness of the European system renders it necessary to have these things exact, & I must therefore trespass upon your kindness to furnish me with another passport.

Repeating my regret for having to put you to so much trouble

Respectfully, Sir,

A friend of ours, Mr. Sam. Hall of St. Louis requests us to procure for himself and his wife in place of the enclosed old cap a new one. Mr. Hall remarks that he is perhaps now ten years older, that his hair is still dark brown except his whiskers are getting gray.

Will you do us the favour to get the cap made and send it to us? Mr. Hall will be here in a few days.

In complying with our request you will send bills

Yours truly

I enclose a description of his person & I hope your will pardon the liberty I take in asking you to procure a passport for his son & as he expects to start the last of this month to forward as soon as possible.

I had the pleasure of writing to you yesterday on a subject of importance. I have since found that the action of Congress will be necessary to enable those who are moving in that affair. It appears that the President when the officer was removed some years since was not aware that he had no authority & immediately cancelled the order.

New York, May 19th 1856.
Sir: -
I am at New York, May 8. 1844.

Enclosed herewith, is a certificate of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, for the City & County of New York, of the naturalization of Alfred Columbus, upon which, he desires to obtain from the Department of State, a Passport.

It is proper to state that Mr. Columbus has, about six months ago, received a passport, from the Department, which bears date in the year 1854. Mr. C. is about to leave the United States, to travel in Sicily, and on presenting his passport to the Sicilian Consul here, <sup>a few days since</sup> to be vizid, his request was denied by the Consul, because the document did not bear date, the present year, 1856.

To obviate the difficulty, I sent the passport, to Washington, last week, addressed to Major Eugene Vandeventer, of the General Post Office, and requested Major V. to call at the Department of State, and obtain a new passport, from the data, of the old one, but dated during the present year. As I have received no answer from Major V. (which leads me to think he may be absent from the city) and as Mr. Columbus is anxious to avail himself of earliest opportunity to depart on his intended journey, I take the liberty of presenting Mr. Columbus' request to the Department The enclosed certificate will furnish the requisite evidence of citizenship, and the document sent last week to Major Vanderwater, and which is undoubtedly either in Major V's possession, or lying, uncalled for, at the City Post Office, will give any other details which may be necessary.

I respectfully ask, that a new passport, bearing date, the present year, may be prepared for Mr. Columbus, and forwarded to me, as early as convenient.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir

I propose leaving New York in the Baltic Steamer on the seventh prox. for Europe, via Liverpool, with my daughter Elsie, and Miss Philomina Smith. Will you do me the kindness to procure for me at the State Department, the necessary passports &

I am informed, that the name of Deane of dispatches, affords a traveller important advantages, and immunities; could you procure me such documents, I should be greatly obliged to you. Your experience as a European traveller will point out to you, all that may be necessary for me and my Company, and I trust you will secure for me any advantages that may be had at Washington; I am told, that the endorsement of my passports by the French Legation Minister might be valuable.

I propose leaving here on the 1st June directly for New York, and must ask you the favour to forward my papers to New York care of Messrs Busholt & Gehard <sup>Box 400 N. Y.</sup> at an early day, - advising me here of the arrangement as soon as made

Should it be necessary for me to pass thro' Washington I can do so. — though at some inconvenience.

Our City is improving far beyond any previous year, and we have thus far had a most delicious business season.

I know your time and patience must be severely taxed by the private affairs of your friends & constituents, but this being the first and perhaps the only trouble I shall give you I trust you will have patience with me.

Dear Sir

Can you without too much trouble do me the favor to get me a passport for Europe where I think of making a six weeks tour. It should be signed also by the French Austrian, Russian & Sardinian Emperors as "bon" or good for their respective countries.

A simple note of introduction from you to Mr Mason or Mr Dallas would also much oblige me.

Very respectfully yours

James R. Howell

Dear Isaac Toucey

My impression now is that Mr Dixon will not be elected Senator & that the election will go over.

I certify the within named gentleman to be a natural

My friend Edward Richie wrote to your department at my request for a passport for me, as I am about visiting Europe on business. It was very promptly forwarded but unfortunately an error has occurred in the filling of it up by inserting the name of Edward Richie in the body of the document instead of my own. Will you be so kind as to forward one to the address of Ed. Richie No 236 North 8th St. Philada filled with my name. I enclosed one obtained by me last year and the one lately sent me that you may see the error.
